

2018 ANNUAL 2019 REPORT

August 1, 2018 - July 31, 2019

The Wood Buffalo Food Bank provides programs and services that provide the resources and education necessary to ensure food security for all citizens in the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo.

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

► Dan Edwards

As I reflect upon this past year, I can say that it has been a wonderful experience of both challenges and growth, as both an individual and a leader.

We began this past fiscal year with the Board of Directors choosing to promote from within the organization and accepting my application to move into the Executive Director position, which was an amazing opportunity that I am so grateful for. It was a significant position to fill, but I knew I had a good support system and team behind me. All the successes of this year would not have been possible without the hardworking staff showing up each day and giving it their all to make things happen for the community. Not only did we have to adjust to this new phase of leadership and work together to find our new vibe, but we also faced external challenges within the community. This past year we were faced with obstacles such as the continued high demand in need, paired with decreases in funding, however my team banded together to make sure that we still provided the services that our community needs. We learned a lot this past year and worked hard to provide 8358 hampers to families in need, raised 608,630 pounds of useable food, and facilitated over 2000 hours of volunteer services.

With the current economic environment that we have been facing we also decided to scale back on our events and only focused our efforts on the most beneficial ones for the community. This led to the decision of postponing our Canstruction event until the timing is right to bring it back. We hosted three major events throughout the year, the Empty Bowls Festival in the fall, the Syncrude Food Drive & Corporate Challenge in the winter, and the Servus Spring Food Drive in the spring. This allowed us to make sure these events were as successful as possible, while also enabling us more energy to support several smaller third-party initiatives. We continue to see so much support from our community it is truly overwhelming, especially knowing that no matter the weather they still show up to either donate or lend a hand. While we had an argument with Mother Nature during our 3rd Annual Empty Bowls Festival, the community of Wood Buffalo grabbed their raincoats and sweaters and still came out to support us and raised $16,900. The weather made up for it during our Syncrude Food Drive weekend, raising $276,827.82 in monetary donations and 75,836 pounds of food, and our Spring Food Drive had a wonderful turnout and raised $13,742 in monetary donations and 39,325lbs of food. We also brought back the Hamper Challenge event in March, which challenged media partners in the community to live off a two-week Food Bank hamper and report on their experience. This event was a huge success in spreading the message of food insecurity and the importance of healthy donations, and we saw a huge rise in donations coming in that month. With these successes we were also able to change our focus onto new fundraising tactics and leverage new partnerships.

Looking towards the next year I am excited to see where it takes us as we continue to grow as a team with the support of our amazing donors, partners and volunteers by our side. I have experienced an amazing eight years growing with this organization from a small staff of three to a staff of ten, and I look forward to leading this team into the future as we continue to fight against food insecurity in our region.

MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD CHAIR

► Suzanne Manning

The people of the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo (RMWB) continue to show the world that we are no doubt resilient – individuals, families, businesses and organizations who continue to make meaningful efforts to recover from a severe economic downturn coupled with one of Canada's worst natural disasters. Despite great efforts to fully recuperate, the reality is that our community continues to struggle and experience the deep stress indicators of a weakened economy: the Wood Buffalo Food Bank Association (WBFB) assisted 23% of our Region's population during the 2018-2019 fiscal year – meaning almost one quarter of the residents of our Region relied on the services of the WBFB in order to acquire food to satiate hunger. Notwithstanding this calamitous reality, the strength and spirit of our community continues to provide optimism for the coming days and years.

As we review the past year, the WBFB is poised in remaining committed to its mission of providing food security for all citizens in the RMWB. Through the collaboration of loyal and generous donors, assiduous volunteers and dedicated staff – all who have contributed valuable donations, time and efforts throughout the last fiscal year – the WBFB has overcome difficult challenges to successfully serve our stakeholders, reach a balanced year-end and persist in our efforts to combat hunger in our Region. The WBFB is grateful for its proven partnerships with community organizations and agencies who share our vision of food security for all within the Region.

The WBFB went through a significant transformation at the beginning of the fiscal year. The WBFB saw the departure of Arianna Johnson, the former Executive Director who devotedly held the position for over seven years and was responsible for nurturing its growth and ability to first meet the expanding needs of a steadily increasing population and then to manage an enormous increase in use following the wildfire in 2016. As the Board of Directors is tasked with providing oversight to the WBFB relating to financial, ethical and legal governance, one of our main responsibilities is to ensure that upon Ms. Johnson's departure that the WBFB secured a leader for the organization who could meet the mandate of the WBFB and carry out its mission. In that regard we filled the Executive Director role from within – hiring Dan Edwards who had worked in the organization for many years and was intimately familiar with the mechanics of the WBFB, its existing programs, and encompassed a vision for continued growth. Following the end of the fiscal year, the Board remains confident in Mr. Edwards' capabilities and proven capacity to lead the organization amidst strenuous financial pressures while continuing to realize the mission of the WBFB and remaining resolute in battling hunger and food insecurity in our Region and increasing awareness and understanding of poverty generally.

In providing a small preview into some of the upcoming activities of the WBFB, the organization is excited to announce funding commitments which will allow the WBFB to re-launch its Basic Shelf and Financial Literacy Program, which not only provides pantry-food staples to participants but also educates them on food safety, basic nutrition, food preparation and budgeting. Further, the WBFB will be working with a selection of local grocery stores to ensure that good, healthy and consumable produce that would otherwise go to waste is redistributed to our organization to be included in our food hampers. The effects of this initiative will reduce waste, provide additional food security for our clients and reduce the organization's overall costs. The WBFB Board and Staff are quite excited about this incredible opportunity for our community!

Certainly the past few years have not been without challenge and we responsibly anticipate further trials in the ensuring fiscal year: the economy remains unstable, the future price and transportation of oil is uncertain and potential changes to political power and policy remain in the balance. Among all of the indeterminate factors, one unfortunate certainty is that hunger and food insecurity within our Region remain prevalent. We call upon our generous donors, volunteers and community organizations to remain resolute in our commitment to the mission of the WBFB and the collective action to continue to contribute to our community's recovery, stability, and lifelong resiliency while preventing the long-term effects of hunger.

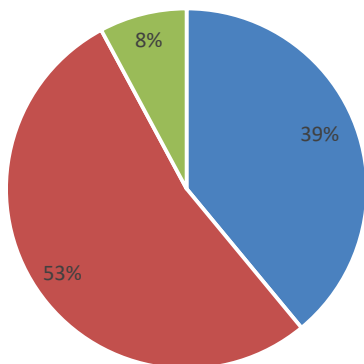

THE NUMBERS

What's going out?

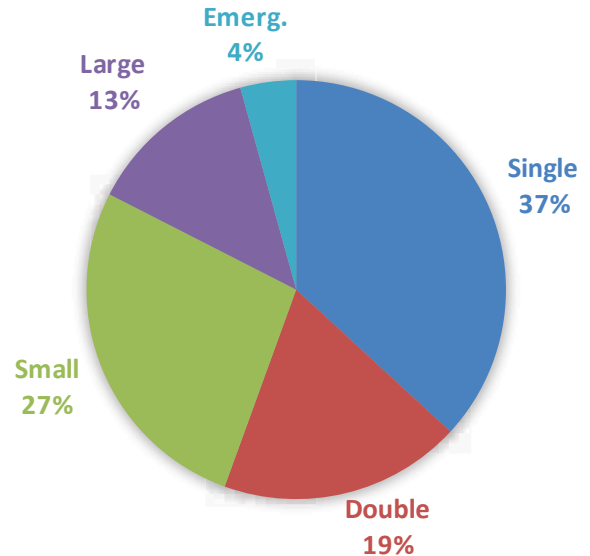

This last year, the Wood Buffalo Food Bank saw a slight decrease in the total amount of hampers going out, however saw an increase the total numbers of individuals served.

Age Group of Clients

- ▶ This past year we saw an increase in children and seniors utilizing our hamper services.

3rd Annual Empty Bowls Festival

On Sunday, September 9, 2018 the 3rd Annual Empty Bowls Festival, presented by John Wilson's Hedco Group, in support of the Wood Buffalo Food Bank was held at Jubilee plaza and was a great success, raising just over $16,900 net.

The family-friendly event had festival goers purchase locally hand-crafted bowls from the Fort McMurray Potter's Guild or Color Me Mine Fort McMurray and make their way around the festival, sampling creations from eight food stations hosted by local eateries. In partnership with Arts Council Wood Buffalo, local artisans were present to showcase and sell their arts and fine crafts, with a portion of sales being donated back to the Wood Buffalo Food Bank. As well, there were displays and demonstrations of live arts and fine crafts, and to raise additional funds, 15 celebrity bowls were created for a silent auction, along with many other items submitted by the local artisans.

Despite the chilly weather, hundreds of people came to enjoy the festival. There were line-ups of festival-goers at each entrance eagerly awaiting 11am to purchase their bowl and enjoy the festivities. The event was expanded this year, bringing on Color Me Mine Fort McMurray to create additional bowls along with the Fort McMurray Potters Guild, totalling 1000 bowls.

26th Annual Syncrude Food Drive & Corporate Challenge

The Syncrude Food Drive began with the Corporate Challenge on Thursday, November 29th with Syncrude kicking off the Corporate Challenge with a pledge of $85,000 live on radio stations Country 93.3 and Rock 97.9. Everyone was then encouraged to call in and donate throughout the day. Several organizations called in their donations throughout the day between 7am to 7pm to show their support for our city in this continuously challenging time. $230,664.00 was raised on-air that day, successfully kicking off this important milestone year of the annual event.

The Corporate Challenge was then followed by the Syncrude Food Drive from Friday, November 30th, to Sunday, December 2nd. Wilson generously donated all 10 trucks stationed at the local grocery stores and Wal-Mart, and we had our Wood Buffalo Food Bank van parked out at the Anzac Grocery Store. Over the three days the Food Drive raised an additional $46,163.82 in monetary donations, and 75,836 pounds of food.

Thank you to our Corp Challenge donors!

The Viral Empty Shelf Photo

The Wood Buffalo Food Bank often puts call-outs for donations and shares their most current needs online, but in February 2019 one particular photo ended up striking a nerve within the community and it went viral. What started as a simple photo of empty shelves on social media turned into a large movement involving groups, schools, sports teams, individuals, and small businesses in the Wood Buffalo region. The photo was shared on hundreds of pages, and seen by thousands in the community, and Fort McMurray did what it does best - stood up and showed their support. Over the next two months tons of donations rolled in and filled the Food Bank shelves, helping to continue to feed families and keep the shelves full until the Spring.

HAMPER
Challenge

Throughout the month of March 2019, several media personalities in Fort McMurray lived off a two-week hamper to experience what it is like to depend solely on the Food Bank.

Each participant was given a list of food items that are typically found in a hamper at the Wood Buffalo Food Bank and could only eat those items over the two-week period - no buying additional items or eating out! If they did they would have to admit it and come clean with why. They gave regular updates on their experience which was shared onto the WBFB's Facebook page. Participants of the challenge included; Elizabeth Priest (Mix 103.7FM), Andrew Skwarek (100.5 Cruz FM), Elliot Pierre (Aurakey Digital Agency), Andrew Wilcox (Wander w/ Andrew Wilcox Podcast), Laura Beamish (Fort McMurray Today), Barb Rex (SNAPd Wood Buffalo), Dan Edwards (WBFB), and Anna Noble (WBFB). The purpose of this challenge was to spread awareness of what is provided in a WBFB hamper and how reliant the organization is on donations from the community.

The campaign was a huge success, bringing in a substantial increase of donations over the course of March, and spurred many food drives held by businesses and groups. Each participant had a truly unique experience and we encourage you to check it out on Facebook if you missed it!

5th Annual Servus Spring Food Drive

Over the course of two days from Saturday, April 6th to Sunday, April 7th, volunteers were stationed at all local grocery stores in Fort McMurray, as well as Walmart and the Anzac Grocery store, collecting donations for the Wood Buffalo Food Bank (WBFB). Even though the weekend had some chilly temperatures and snow, it was a successful event.

The 2019 Servus Spring Food Drive raised a grand total of $13,742 in monetary donations, and 39,325lbs pounds of food, not quite reaching the goals of $25,000 and 40,000lbs. However, with the incredible support that occurred with numerous fundraisers and donations over the month prior this was not seen as a concern.

The WBFB would also like to extend a huge thank you to all the volunteers who stepped up to fill all those much-needed shifts as this event could not happen without all those extra hands. Many volunteers took on extra shifts and jumped in last minute to help, and the WBFB can not thank you enough. Also, a special shout-out to Finning, Servus Credit Union, Northstar Ford, Leon's Heavy Equipment, and Aurora Vet Clinic for providing many staff members throughout the weekend! And thank you to the many youth teams that were seen out there in front of the stores.

FOOD BANK PROGRAMMING

► Traditional Hamper

The Traditional food hamper program offers services by appointment and by approved application Monday to Thursday, 10am to 8pm. We provide these services by appointment for many reasons the most important being client confidentiality and food purchasing. We also do this so we are able to spend a few minutes with clients giving them our undivided attention and referrals to other agencies that might be helpful to them.

► Mobile Pantry Program

The Food Bank's Mobile Pantry Program is unique and progressive because we directly address geographically isolated low-income communities where residents experience chronic hunger and food insecurity. The MPP was established to assist low-income individuals and families who live in rural communities within the RMWB, where residents have little or no access to transportation and/or where there might be no full-service grocery stores within reasonable walking distance.

► Basic Shelf & Financial Literacy

The Basic Shelf program is a series of workshops over 6 weeks. With a small group of attendees, participants are taught how to cook and shop for food on a limited budget with the curriculum being heavily weighted in Financial Literacy. The program is based on the strategy of keeping a 'basic shelf' of ingredients full in your home, with which you learn how to create a variety of meals that are nutritious and affordable. Whenever you've used an item from your basic shelf, you know to replenish it at your next round of groceries.

► Slow Cooker Program

Over 6 weeks, this flexible program assists low-income clients learn to successfully prepare healthful, low-cost meals for themselves and/or their families. The Slow Cooker Program facilitates healthy social interactions, increased self-esteem, and promotes positive behavior changes leading to increased food security. The Slow Cooker Program encourages people to try new recipes, and a new or forgotten method of cooking.

► Snack Attack

The Food Bank's Snack Attack Program is a program designed to address the increasing need for snacks in our schools for children and youth who come to school hungry. This program provides a choice of healthy snacks as approved by Alberta Health Services (AHS). The program has been running Janvier over the past year, and with our new three-year partnership with the Fort McMurray Airport Authority this program will be once again provided to local schools in Fort McMurray.

► Emergency Services

The WBFB provides emergency 3 days hampers to organizations within the RMWB, who serve clients during weekends and holidays who need food bank support. These hampers provide enough food to get a small family through the weekend until they can contact the food bank when it opens the following week.

ANNUAL COMMUNITY AWARDS 2019

Event Volunteer of the Year

MITCHELL STEEVES

Mitchell Steeves went above and beyond for the Wood Buffalo Food Bank during our Spring Food Drive. When nobody showed up to help with his volunteer shift he didn't call for assistance despite the cold weather, because he knew the Food Bank was struggling for volunteers, and it was his parent's date night.

Warehouse Volunteer of the Year

ABBY MOLTER

Abby came to the Wood Buffalo Food Bank by way of joining a group of her coworkers at one of our food drives. She had such a wonderful time helping out, and asked "How can I do more?" Since then she has been a huge help for your warehouse by helping pick up donations from stores on a weekly basis.

Partner of the Year

NURSING
PROGRAM

The Keyano College Nursing Program has worked closely with the Wood Buffalo Food Bank for several years now, by sending their nursing students to the organization for their work experience placement. We absolutely love all the students that come through and help us out.

Good Neighbour of the Year

Printing Unlimited has been an invaluable support to the Wood Buffalo Food Bank. They have donated their time and resources by donating new banners for our food drive and always helping us out last minute.

Board Member of the Year

DENNINE GILES

For the second year in a row, the Board of Directors voted Dennine as Board Member of the Year. This is due to her passion for the organization that clearly shows through. She is always advocating for the Food Bank in the community, and is always making sure her company and staff are also doing their part to support as well.

Collaborator of the Year

Color Me Mine

Color Me Mine joined us this year for our Empty Bowls Festival. Amy and her team work tirelessly to make sure all the bowls are fired and ready to go. Her staff have created wonderful works of art as part of the celebrity bowls and are so proud when speaking about the partnership with community members in their store.

Donor of the Year

MARIO CARREIRO

Mario Carreiro is one of our amazing monthly online donors. What made us think of him was that even when he was going through some personal struggles he made it a point to contact the food bank right away to make sure that his information was updated and we would not miss his monthly contribution.

Promoter of the Year

MyMcMurray (Rogers) has been a tremendous help during the past year with promoting our needs and events. They have actively reached out to us for stories and coverage, which is so helpful as we try to get the word out!

THANK YOU!
